Kiefer can help you automate and optimize critical business processes within your agency.

There are a number of business processes that are critical to state agencies. Unfortunately, some of these processes are slow and cumbersome.

Kiefer Consulting has worked with clients to tackle these processes and deliver improvements that are truly game-changing.

Our team has helped state agencies transform these legacy processes and enable users to work more efficiently.

The Kiefer Simple Solutions Suite is a collection of solutions that transform how state agencies work. We recognize that all agencies do things differently, but our deep understanding of the common processes allow us to work collaboratively with your agency to deploy a solution that empowers users and digitally transforms legacy workflows.

The Benefits

Automated notifications
Notifies key team members automatically when action is required. Many agencies have multiple staff members that have a role in a workflow. They may be a reviewer or an approver. Our solutions make sure approvers / reviewers know when there is something in their queue.

Improved visibility
The Kiefer Simple Solutions solve for a very common workflow challenge, visibility. The Kiefer solutions help agencies see where critical documents are in the workflow.

Simplified digital workflow
Entire workflows can be managed from a single interface. Track missing items and easily determine what tasks need to be completed.

Dashboards and reporting
Assess the efficiency of your process with the support of an easy to read dashboard. Workflow analytics can also help organizations identify bottlenecks in the process.
